

SCOTLAND BED & BREAKFAST

THE ESSENTIAL GUIDE TO B&Bs IN SCOTLAND
NOW WITH COLOUR MAPS & PICTURES

Ben Nevis. The Edinburgh Festival. Sea-side golf links. Malt whisky. The Loch Ness Monster. The images of Scotland are as varied and enthralling as the land itself. From the untamed beauty of the Highlands and Islands to the culture and excitement of Edinburgh and Glasgow, Scotland never fails to thrill the senses.

A great way to get close to all the scenery and action, when travelling through Scotland, is by staying in one of the country's many Bed & Breakfasts. They offer a great value alternative to expensive hotels, each has its own individual charm and you get a home-cooked breakfast to start your day

Stilwell's Scotland: Bed & Breakfast 2002 is the most comprehensive guide of its kind, with over 1,000 entries listed by region and location. Each entry includes room rates, facilities, Tourist Board grades, local maps and a description of the B&B, its location and surroundings.

Experience the Highlands, the Lowlands and everywhere in between with Stilwell's Scotland: Bed & Breakfast 2002.

Private houses, country halls, farms, cottages, inns,
small hotels and guest houses

OVER 1,000 ENTRIES • AVERAGE PRICE £18 PER PERSON PER NIGHT
ALL OFFICIAL GRADES SHOWN • LOCAL MAPS • PUBS SERVING HOT EVENING MEALS SHOWN
TOURIST INFORMATION CENTRES LISTED • HANDY SIZE FOR EASY PACKING

£7.95 Net in UK
ISBN # 1-900861-29-1

SCOTLAND BED & BREAKFAST 2002

STILWELL

STILWELL'S

SCOTLAND BED & BREAKFAST 2002

COUNTRY HOUSES / INNS / SMALL HOTELS / COTTAGES / FARMS

Wiltonburn Farm, Hawick, Borders

OFFICIAL
TOURIST BOARD
GRADES
SHOWN

OVER 1,000 B&Bs
NOW WITH COLOUR MAPS AND PICTURES

AVERAGE £18
PER PERSON
PER NIGHT